CONTEST PROCEDURE

1. At registration time, the competitors should pick up the competition schedule, and their contest entry forms. If there are any changes or mistakes, the competitors should write them on the forms. The entry forms must be presented at the time of competing. Competitors should check for the time and place of the competitor's workshop, where they may ask questions of the Tournament Auditors.

2. Parts, Crew and Doorkeepers should arrive at the place of competition five or more minutes early. Disturbances will be penalized. Parts may arrive dressed for competition or may change at that time.

3. For team competitions one active DeMolay shall be designated as a spokesman, for all individual competitions the competitor shall be the spokesman.

4. Near their scheduled time, the Chapter will be called at the door of the competition room. Competitor will reply at once to the Evaluator who called, informing him that the Chapter is present and ready to compete. Competitors may arrive dressed for competition or may change at that time.

5. Evaluators and Competitor(s) enter the room, followed by Crew, with any additional equipment they may wish to use for the degree. Doorkeepers may take their places and leave the doors open. Panel Chairman calls room to order and proceeds with the Panel Ritual. After time is called "On", Spokesman hands him the entry form, whereby he certifies that all Parts are Qualified Persons. Any Chapter error on the entry form which would affect the eligibility of any Part will disqualify the Chapter. Spokesman asks any additional questions the team may have. At this point the panel chairperson will ask the stipulation questions and the competitor or other qualified person shall respond, and makes any required stipulations.

Please note: It is recommended that if your jurisdiction has a unique tradition such as the way you walk, or the way you hold your hands, or anything else that may be provincially unique that you inform the panel chair in your stipulations. Judges should note that failure to inform the judges is not, by itself, a penalty.

6. Parts and Crew arrange area for competition. Crew members may include Advisors or other adults. When preparations are complete the competitor informs the Evaluators by saying "Begin", and evaluation begins.

7. When the Chapter is finished, Spokesman says "Stop", and evaluation ceases.

Mid-Atlantic Tournament of Champions
Rules, Sources, Contest Procedure, and Specifics (Updated July 6, 2017))

8. Parts and Crew clear area of Chapter equipment. When clear, Panel Chairman says "Time off", ending the official timing period.

9. Delegation may witness all competitions possible, recalling that their misconduct or their harassment of a Competitor will be penalized at the discretion of the Tournament director.

10. At the request of the competitor, a room may be cleared of all spectators.

11. Chapter may appeal the result of a contest by notifying the Tournament Chairman within 48 hours of the release of the Evaluation Sheets. A full written statement of the protest's basis must be postmarked or e-mailed to the tournament director within 7 business days. Chapters or competitors will be notified of the ruling within 30 days.
